BRETHREN,

Tickets for our second Breakfast for the Charities were mailed this week. Breakfast will be served from 7:00-11:00 AM at the Harrisburg United Methodist Church. Volunteers to help serve and clean up are needed. Contact Brian Lee, if you can help.

While tickets were mailed only to local members, please consider making a separate donation to the Charities, if you do not receive tickets or are unable to use the tickets sent to you.

Volunteers are still needed to work the October Races. If you can work on Oct 9, 10 or 11, please contact Boyd McGee, 704-549-1269. Monies raised can be used for improvements to the Lodge or Hut such as our new Lodge roof.

Service Anniversary Awards will be presented at our November Stated Communication. Separate notice will be sent out to those brothers receiving awards.

At our November Stated Communication we will also be voting on excluding members who are delinquent in their 2003 dues. Final Notices have been sent out and we currently have 13 delinquencies.

For those of you who want to beat the rush, 2004 Dues cards are now available. Consider giving yourself an early Christmas gift. Dues are only $50. Checks should be made payable to Newell Lodge No. 739.

Finally, please remember our sick and shut-ins in your prayers.

FRATERNALLY, Charles Michael, Master
