BRETHREN,

It is with sorrow that I report the death of Bro. Boyd Ray Broome, Jr on Oct 14th. Bro. Broome was initiated, passed and raised by Newell Lodge in 1996. Masonic Funeral rites were conducted.

I wish to welcome our newest members. Bros. Robert Gregory Amick and Patrick Michael Brown were raised on Oct. 27th and Bro. Stephen Earnest Lee was admitted at our Nov. Stated. Bro. Lee is also a member of Charles M. Setzer Lodge No. 693 where he is a Past Master.

I am pleased to announce that our 2nd Breakfast for the Charities was a success. Special thanks go to Brian Lee for heading up this important event.

Also I wish to extend thanks to those Brothers and family members who worked at the Speedway. Boyd McGee did his usual outstanding job in coordinating this event.

Congratulations to those Brothers who received their Service Anniversary Pins and Certificates at our November Stated. For those Brothers who were unable to attend we will mail their pins and certificates.

Notices of Exclusion for Non-Payment of Dues will be sent out this week. Any Brother receiving such a notice has two years to be reinstated without vote by paying this year's dues and the current year's dues. After two years reinstatement must be voted on.

For those of you who want to beat the rush, 2004 Dues cards are now available. Consider giving yourself an early Christmas gift. Dues are only $50. Checks should be made payable to Newell Lodge No. 739.

Please plan on attending the December Stated as we will be voting on new officers for 2004.

Finally, please remember our sick and shut-ins in your prayers.

FRATERNALLY, Charles Michael, Master
