Boy Scout Troop 42 appreciates your support in our endeavor to raise money for our troop projects. The money earned from this horse show will pay for our camping trips, educational activities, equipment, and supplies, including expenses for some of our troop projects. We thank you for your support.

The program book is a listing of all sponsors of Troop 42 and is distributed to all participants and spectators at the horse show. Additional program books are also distributed to families in the community. For more information or questions please contact Steve Anderson 704-948-9963.
